what to wear to a job interview...

Dress appropriately for the position you are being interviewed for, thinking about the image you want to portray. Suggestions for clothing are:

- An appropriate length skirt;
- Tailored pants or trousers, that aren’t too tight;
- A coordinated blouse or shirt;
- Underwear that is not visible under clothing;
- Conservative, clean shoes;
- Limited jewellery;
- Neat and tidy hairstyle;
- Neutral pantyhose (if appropriate);

AVOID

- Carrying a backpack or fanny pack
- Sunglasses or headphones on top of your head around or around your neck;
- Skirts that are too short;
- Clothes that are too tight;
- See through clothes;
- Bra straps and underwear showing;
- Overly bright or large-patterned clothing;
- Heavy makeup;
- More than one set of earrings;
- Facial piercings, tongue jewelry or visible tattoos;
- Ill-fitting clothes;
- Long, painted fingernails;
- Unnatural hair colors or styles;
- Fishnets or patterned hosiery;
- Rumpled or stained clothing;
- Scuffed or inappropriate footwear;
- Strong perfumes or colognes;

Remember, first impressions count!
